

Yorktown Landmarks Preservation Commission Presents

A Community Conversation:

Planning for the 250th Commemoration of the Founding of the United States of America

How can Yorktown Take Part?

7 PM, October 10, 2019

Shrub Oak International School

Constance Kehoe, Director of Revolutionary Westchester, 250 (RW250) will join us to facilitate our exploration of how Yorktown can best highlight and increase appreciation for our many local Revolutionary War era people and places. In addition, she will provide background on national, regional and state efforts, and review some of the programs already organized by local communities over the past year. Yorktown residents as well as other interested members of the public are invited.

Davenport House, Yorktown: Site of the Battle of Pines Bridge, May, 1781

This RW250 Community Conversation is free of charge. Shrub Oak International School is located at 3151 Stoney Street in Mohegan Lake. For purposes of school security, those attending are respectfully asked to register at the front desk and to present photo identification.