

Join the Daughters of Liberty's Legacy & the Hawthorne Reformed Church for Colonial Day
in Mount Pleasant

Saturday, August 14th from 10am to 4pm

We welcome you to wander our colonial camp and chat with your colonial neighbors.

Join General Washington and hear about his journey from the Battle of Brooklyn through Westchester.

Meet Patriot Pastor Muhlenberg to hear how his sermons inspired soldiers to join in the fight for Liberty.

Chat with Ann Fisher Miller and hear about life for women and families in Mt. Pleasant during the war.

65 Broadway, Hawthorne

For information      Cynthia@DOLL1776.com
914-484-6218

Facebook.com/daughtersoflibertyslegacy

FREE REGISTRATION:

<https://colonialmtpleasant.eventbrite.com>

10:00 Blessing of the troops and citizens. Flag raising by General Washington and his troops. Then march with General Washington to our colonial camp.

11:00 Colonial tombstone carving demonstration by Master stone carver Bob Carpenter. Try your hand at stone carving!

11:30 to 12:30 Free hot dog and drink for our registered guests courtesy of the Hawthorne Reformed Church. Register below.

12:30 Meet General Washington and Colonial Pastor Muhlenberg and hear their inspiring and patriotic tales.

2:00 COLONIAL KIDS Join us to hear Ann Fisher Miller, a colonial mom, tell what it was like to be a colonial kid. Then craft tricorne hats and march to the camp and drill with the soldiers, try colonial toys. Refreshments!

2:00 Join Pastor Dan as he tells about the important and dramatic role the church played in the American Revolution.

2:30 Meet Ann Fisher Miller and hear about family life during the Revolutionary war.

3:00 Guided tour of the Patriots at rest in the historic cemetery.

3:30 Join General Washington as he addresses the troops, pays honors at a Patriots grave and retires the colors.

And more events throughout the day...join us!!